Lieutenant Governor a Ringmaster.

Lieutenant Governor Edwin J. Kessler of Connecticut does not consider it beneath his dignity as a public official to act as ringmaster at a circus. The circus is to be an amateur affair, however, and for charity. The unique entertainment is to be given at the Fourth regiment armory at Norwalk.

Pittsburg Jail a Handsome Building.

The Pittsburg jail from which the Biddle brothers escaped is the handsomest prison in the United States. It was built from designs by Richardson, the famous Boston architect, whose genius has so many monuments to his memory in the newer buildings of Harvard University.

Wants Motor Car for Farmers.

Emperor William of Germany has offered a prize for a motor car suited for the purposes of farmers. The award will be made some time next year by the emperor himself.

May Have Indian Bodyguard.

It is said that the British government is considering the desirability of establishing a royal bodyguard of native Indian cavalry, to be quartered in London.

Forests in Cuba.

No less than 30,000,000 acres of Cuba—nearly half the island—are forest. There are thirty different species of palms alone found there.

Curious Polish Superstitions.

Poland has a wealth of animal superstitions. The goat is there considered the best harbinger of luck, while the wolf, crow and pigeon are looked upon as unlucky. The skin of a cat worn on the chest is alleged to cure consumption. "To cure cataract in the eye take a black cock, make him look at the sun, look at it yourself, then throw the cock on the ground, jump on a fence and crow three times."
